

EDNA KARR HIGH SCHOOL PARENT COMPACT

Parents & Students Expect Edna Karr:

- To treat each child as if he/she were their own
- To develop our students to become life-long independent learners who are successful in college & life
- To nurture the growth and development of each student
- To encourage students to settle for nothing less than their best efforts
- To maintain open communication with parents about students academics and character development
- To make learning interesting and engaging
- To provide a safe orderly environment conducive to learning
- To employ teachers who are knowledgeable and current in their subject area

Edna Karr Expects Our Students:

- To be on time and dressed properly for all classes
- To be prepared to participate & learn each day
- To follow directions and all school rules and regulations
- To complete homework and study each night
- To understand that we are driven by what is in their best interests
- To be cooperative and strive for a positive attitude
- To constantly strive for personal bests
- To always strive for self respect and mutual respect of classmates, teachers, and staff

Edna Karr Expects Our Parents

- To encourage their child to perform to the best of his/her ability
- To provide a structured learning environment for their child
- To stress respect for and support their child's teachers
- To ensure that their child is dressed properly and prepared for each day
- To insure that their child completes homework each school night
- To read and follow regulations in the Edna Karr handbook
- To participate in school functions
  - A. Attend report card conferences each quarter
  - B. Attend open house and class nights
  - C. Utilize the school's web page on an regular basis
  - D. Attend 3 additional PTO functions
  - E. Utilize the Parent Center located in room 123A

X _____

Parent Signature

X _____

Student Signature

X _____

Principal Signature

